

Just because

people listen

to me does not mean I

have the most important

things to say.

We aren't
all given
the same
chances.

My life
is not more
important
than theirs.

Just because

one person
did it does
not mean it's possible for
everyone

My success
is not solely
a product
of my hard
work.
